Q. 1) Read the passage and answer the following questions.

One day, a little squirrel named Chintu was looking for food in the forest. He found a big tree full of tasty nuts. He was very happy.

But just then, a big crow came and said, “These nuts are mine!”

Chintu thought for a moment and said, “Alright, let’s share. You can take the nuts on the top branches, and I’ll take the ones on the bottom.”

The crow agreed and flew up. While the crow was busy eating, Chintu quickly collected many nuts from the ground and ran home safely.

Chintu was small, but he was very clever!

Q.10) Write the passage in the lines given below.

One day a wonderful plate made of gold fell from heaven into the court of a temple. The following words were written on it.” A gift from heaven to him who loves mankind the best”. The priest of the temple invited people to the temple and told them about the gift from heaven. Everybody claimed that they love mankind best, then each one got up one by one and narrated their own kind deeds. But as soon as they touched the plate, it turned into lead. The richest man in the village got up and spoke about his big charity, but as soon as he touched the plate, it turned into lead. A poor farmer was also present there. He did not know about the plate. He sat in a corner quietly. The priest called him to touch the plate. He bowed to the plate and touched the plate. It shone more brightly. The priest awarded the farmer the plate as his love for mankind was true.
