

★ Dictation Words:

- | | |
|--------------|---------------|
| 1) spicy | 11) panting |
| 2) burning | 12) moaning |
| 3) boiling | 13) whining |
| 4) sizzling | 14) fault |
| 5) stinging | 15) chilli |
| 6) scorching | 16) silly |
| 7) broiling | 17) feel |
| 8) aflame | 18) frying |
| 9) chomping | 19) perspire |
| 10) guzzling | 20) tastebuds |

★ Word Meanings:

- 1) sizzling - very hot
- 2) stinging - a sharp pain like an insect bite
- 3) scorching - very hot
- 4) broiling - very hot
- 5) perspire - to sweat due to heat
- 6) guzzling - drinking very fast, in huge amount
- 7) chomping - biting and chewing noisily

- 8) panting - breathing loudly and quickly.
9) moaning - making continuous low sounds due to pain
10) whining - making sad, high pitched sound, like a dog.

* Make sentences :

- 1) panting - Ann was panting after the race.
2) sizzling - I like to eat sizzling pasta.
3) chomping - Tanavi was chomping an apple.

* Answer these questions :-

Q1) What is the hottest food that you have ever eaten?

A1) I have never eaten hottest food or I have eaten hottest pizza, noodles, manchurian & etc.

Q2) Why do you think the narrator in the poem thought it was cold when they heard the word 'chilli'?

A2) The word 'chilly' sounds just like 'chilli' which means cold. This is why the narrator got confused.

Q3) In the poem, the narrator wants to use water and ice to help against the heat of the chilli. Can you suggest five other things that can help to 'cut through the spice'?

A3) The other things that help to cut through the spice are - milk, cream, yoghurt, sweets, buttermilk and chocolate.

Q4) Which chilli is hotter than the Bhut Jolokia?

A4) The Carolina Reaper is hotter than the Bhut Jolokia.