

SHREE VASISHTHA VIDHYALAYA

Science Worksheet 2024-25

Name :-

Roll No :-

Worksheet - PA1-02

Std.:- IV -

Date :-

Ch- No. 2 Digestion of food. Ch-No. 3 Our Teeth

Q-1 What will happen if

1) The liver and pancreas do not function well?

IF the liver and pancreas do not function well, the digestive juices will not pour into the small intestine for digestion of food.

2) The food is not chewed properly in the mouth?

IF the food is not chewed properly, the food particle will not be broken down into small particles.

3) The salivary glands do not produce any saliva?

IF the salivary glands do not produce any saliva then the food will not become soft and starch in the food will not change into sugar.

Q-2 Fill in the blanks.

1) The first set of teeth is called milk teeth (temporary teeth).

2) The enamel is the hardest material in the human body.

3) The front teeth are called incisors.

4) Molars are grinding teeth.

5) If food remains in the mouth, it leads to the growth of bacteria.

Q-3) Name the following.

1) Part of the tooth that we can see

Crown

2) The part of the tooth present inside the enamel.

dentine

3) Number of Premolars present in each jaw.

Four

4) The chisel-shaped teeth at the front of the mouth.

incisors

5) A doctor who looks after the teeth and malformations of the teeth.

dentist

Q-4) State True or False.

1) Baby teeth are also called milk teeth.

T

2) Four canines are present in each jaw.

F

3) There are three types of the teeth in the human mouth.

F

3) Brushing your teeth twice a day is important for dental health.

T

4) Our teeth give the shape to our face.

T

5) We should eat too many sweets, toffees and chocolates.

F

Rashmi
1816.

Q-5) Read the following two statements and choose the correct option.

1. Statement 1-Rinse your mouth after every meal.

Statement 2-Visit the dentist once a year for a check up of your teeth.

- ☒ a. Both statement 1 and 2 are correct
- b. Statement 1 is correct but 2 is incorrect
- c. Statement 1 is incorrect but statement 2 is correct
- d. Both statement 1 and 2 are incorrect

2. Statement 1-Incisors are biting teeth.

Statement 2-Incisors are present at the back side of the mouth.

- a. Both statement 1 and 2 are correct
- ☒ b. Statement 1 is correct but 2 is incorrect
- c. Statement 1 is incorrect but statement 2 is correct
- d. Both statement 1 and 2 are incorrect

3. Statement 1-Tooth decay happens when bacteria convert sugar into acid.

Statement 2-Tooth decay causes bad smell from mouth.

- ☒ a. Both statement 1 and 2 are correct
- b. Statement 1 is correct but 2 is incorrect
- c. Statement 1 is incorrect but statement 2 is correct
- d. Both statement 1 and 2 are incorrect

Q-5 Write functions of the following teeth.

1) Incisors

Useful in biting and cutting the food

2) Canines

These are pointed teeth used for tearing food.

3) Premolars

These are used for crushing and cracking food.

4) Molars

Useful in grinding the food.

Q-6) Think and answer.

1) What are the consequences of not taking care of our teeth?

If we do not take care of our teeth then our teeth will decay and making holes or marking cavities in the teeth. It also causes bad smell from the mouth.

2) Why is it important to brush our teeth regularly?

It is important to brush our teeth regularly to keep our teeth and gums healthy.