Chapter 3 The Magic Wardrobe

Q 1 Answer the following questions.

i. What happens when Lucy steps inside the wardrobe? Describe the world she discovers.

Ans When Lucy steps inside the wardrobe, she finds herself in a snowy forest covered with thick snow and tall trees. This new world is called Narnia, a magical land filled with talking animals and mythical creatures.

---

---

---

---

ii. Who is Mr. Tumnus, and what role does he play in Lucy's adventure in Narnia?

Ans Mr. Tumnus is a faun who lives in Narnia. He befriends Lucy, invites her for tea, and protects her by refusing to betray her to the White Witch.

---

---

---

iii. How do Lucy's siblings respond when she tells them about Narnia? What does this reaction tell us about their belief in her story?

Ans Lucy's siblings do not believe her story about Narnia and think she is imagining things. This shows that they are skeptical and find it hard to accept the existence of a magical world.

---

---

---

iv. What does the wardrobe represent in the story?

Ans The wardrobe represents a magical gateway between the real world and Narnia.

---

v. How does Lucy feel when she first enters Narnia, and what does this tell us about her character?

Ans Lucy feels curious and excited when she enters Narnia for the first time. This shows she is brave, adventurous, and open to exploring new worlds.

---

---

---

vi. What does Mr. Tumnus do to make Lucy feel welcome in his home?

Ans Mr. Tumnus invites Lucy to sit by the fire, offers her tea and nice food, and talks to her kindly. His warm hospitality makes Lucy feel safe and comfortable.

---

---

---

vii. Explain why Lucy decides to return home from Narnia.

Ans Lucy decides to return home because it is getting late, and she knows she needs to be back before her family starts looking for her. She also wants to share her discovery with her siblings.

---

---

---

viii. Why wouldn't Mr Tumnus tell the White Witch about Lucy?

Ans Mr Tumnus would not tell the White Witch about Lucy because now that he had got to know Lucy, he had grown fond of her and could not give her to the witch.

Q4. Read the following passage carefully, and choose the correct options:

It was a cloudy morning, and dark grey clouds covered the sky. Riya looked outside her window and saw big drops of rain falling from the sky. She was a little sad because she had planned to play outside with her friends. Her mother came in and said, "Why don't you wear your raincoat and boots? You can enjoy the rain safely."

Riya got excited. She quickly wore her yellow raincoat and stepped outside. The streets were wet and shiny. She jumped in puddles and laughed as water splashed around her. Her friend Aarav joined her, and they both made paper boats and watched them float. Even though they couldn't play in the park, they still had fun. That rainy day turned out to be one of the best days Riya ever had.
