

VASISHTHA GENESIS SCHOOL, BARDOLI

(Academic Session: 2025-26)

Date: / /25	Class: 3rd	Div: _____	Roll no:	Sub: S.S
Name:			CT-1 WORKSHEET: 1

Chapter NO: 3 PHYSICAL DIVISIONS OF INDIA

Q1. Fill in the blanks.

- i. India is also known as _____.
- ii. India is the _____ largest country in the world.
- iii. India is _____ kilometre long from North to South and _____ kilometer long from West to East.
- iv. Northern plains are also known as _____
- v. The first Indian woman to climb Mount Everest was _____
- vi. The first men to climb Mount Everest were _____ and _____
- vii. At _____ the Arabian sea, Indianocean and Bay of Bengal meet.
- viii. Land surrounded by water on three sides is called _____
- ix, Land surrounded by water on all the sides is called _____
- x. Two rivers rise from Himalaya's _____ and _____

Q2. Answer the following very short type questions.

- i. Group of islands in the Bay of Bengal are called _____
- ii. Groups of islands in the Arabian Sea are called _____
- iii. Name the desert on the North-Western parts of India _____
- iv. A piece of land covered by sand is called _____
- v. In North India we see flat or level land. These are called _____
- vi. The height of Mount Everest is _____
- vii. A type of plain land which is higher than its surrounding area is called _____

Answer the following short type questions.

i. What is the population of India?

Ans: The population of India is over 121crore (as per census 2011).

India is the second most populous country in the world.

ii. Name the highest mountain peak of the world.

Ans: The highest mountain peak of the world is Mount Everest.

And its height is 8,848 meters.

iii. What is the difference between an island and a Northern Plains?

Ans: Northern plains	Island
1) Flat and level land is mainly found in Northern plains.	1) The land surrounded by water from all sides is called island.
2) The land in the Northern Plain is very fertile formed by silt deposit of river bank of Yamuna	2) Andaman and Nicobar island is in Bay of Bengal.
3) The states of Northern plains are Haryana, Uttar Pradesh, Punjab, Bihar and Delhi.	3) Lakshadweep Island is in Arabian sea.

iv. Why India is named Bharat?

Ans: The name Bharat is derived from ancient king Bharata. Who was the son

Of Dushyant and Shakuntla. The name is also linked to the Bharat Dynasty.

Extra question.

i. Name the mountain ranges found in South and Central India.

Ans: The mountain ranges found in South and Central India are :

1) Central India-Satpura Hills

2) South India-Nilgiri Hills