Ch- 9 One Plastic Bag

Q1. Answer these questions:

i. Isatou slides the strange fabric through her fingers... Why did she find the fabric strange?

Ans- Isatou had never seen or touched a plastic bag before. She had only seen baskets in the village and this plastic bag felt different.

Ans: _____

ii. "There's more in the city." Who said this and what are they speaking about? Why was 'the thing' more in the city?

Ans- Isatou's grandmother said this about the plastic bags. It was more commonly seen in the city because cities use more plastic than villages.

Ans: _____

iii. Why did Isatou think plastic bags were not beautiful anymore?

Ans- Isatou thought the plastic bags were not beautiful anymore because they did not mix with the earth, but created an unclean environment that was hard to walk by.

Ans: _____

iv. But I believe what we are doing is good. Who said this and why?

Ans- Isatou said this because even as the people around them mocked them for making purses out of waste plastic bags, she thought it was good to create something useful and beautiful out of waste.

Ans: _____

v. Why did everyone laugh at Isatou and her friends?

Ans-They laughed because Isatou and her friends pulled things out of the rubbish pile. The villagers did not believe that the rubbish plastic can be converted into useful products.

Ans: _____

vi. What was Isatou's dream? What problems did she face, and how did she keep trying to make her dream come true?

Ans- Isatou's dream was to reduce plastic waste and make something beautiful and useful out of it. She faced a lot of problems but she continued making these purses, even as her hands were sore and full of blisters until people started buying them.

Ans: _____
