

Homonyms

Critical Thinking

Phonics

A. Complete the table by filling in the meanings of the words in the table. The meanings have been given in the boxes.

a colour      part of a tree      not heavy      an animal
a device for showing time      a place to keep money

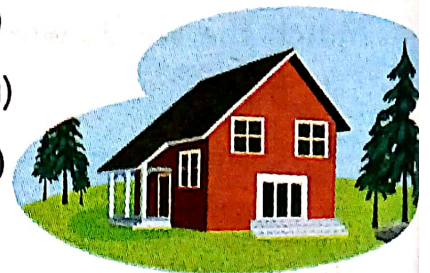

a side of a river      a fruit      an elephant's nose      a sports gear to look at something for a while      something that helps us see things

1. bat	an animal	a sports gear
2. orange	a colour	a fruit
3. trunk	part of a tree	an elephant's nose
4. light	not heavy	something that helps us see things
5. watch	a device for showing time	to look at something for a while
6. bank	a place to keep money	a side of a river

Synonyms

B. Unscramble the words in brackets to write two synonyms that describe each of the given words.

- house: big, huge (igb, eguh)
- leaf: green, fresh (grnee, frhse)
- girl: beautiful, pretty (bfuaietul, ptreyt)
- table: little, small (letilt, slaml)
- road: wide, broad (wdie, bodar)
- bread: soft, spongy (stfo, snoypg)
- dog: loyal, faithful (lyaol, fahtiflu)
- storm: rough, harsh (rugoh, hrahs)
- horse: fast, swift (fsat, fswti)
- book: interesting, amusing (itnensgreti, ausnmgi)

Vocabulary

Antonyms

C. Tick (✓) the correct antonyms of the underlined words.

1. Rinku is short and his brother is tall/high. ✓
2. This side of the room is bright, but the other side is black/dark. ✓
3. Urmi is younger than her sister and elder/older than her brother. ✓
4. Although he is not poor, he is not as rich/comfortable as his cousins. ✓
5. This dog seems lazy in the morning and interested/energetic at night. ✓
6. Johnny bought a new jacket. So, he gave his old/ancient jacket to Jack. ✓
7. Mishti is confident of her performance, but her friend is unsure/shy of hers. ✓
8. She is the first person to arrive at the party, but her brother was the end/last one to come. ✓
9. As the dog slept under the table, the cat jumped over/below it. ✓
10. Anees thought the chocolate would be sweet, but it was light/bitter. ✓
11. Grandpa used to be strong in his youth but is weak/shy now. ✓
12. The food was hot and fresh in the morning but is warm/stale now. ✓

D. Rewrite the following sentences by using the antonyms of the underlined words.

1. Jaya's handwriting is very untidy.

Jaya's handwriting is very tidy.

2. The garden looks very ugly.

The garden looks very beautiful.

3. Seema spoke to me very rudely.

Seema spoke to me very politely.

4. I do not have any friends.

I do not have any enemies.

5. I hate rainy mornings.

I love rainy mornings.

6. I find English grammar easy.

I find English grammar difficult.

7. Where is the big bag?

Where is the small bag?

8. The old man is very kind.

The young man is very kind.