

15

Verbs: Has, Have

THINK

Critical Thinking

Problem Solving and Decision Making

Read these descriptions and number the pictures.

1. I am blue. I have four wheels.
2. It is brown. It has two ears.
3. We are yellow. We have a sweet smell.
4. I am green. I have many leaves.

2

3

1

4

LEARN

The words has and have refer to what someone or something owns or possesses.

We use has when we talk about one person, animal or thing.

It is also used with he, she and it.

PRACTISE

A. Look at these pictures to know what these children have. Now, complete the sentences based on them.

1. Susan and Frank have a bicycle.
2. Peter has a ball.
3. Susan and Frank have an umbrella.
4. Peter has a bag.
5. Frank and Susan have books.
6. Peter has a pet.

B. Complete this passage using has or have.

Mr Patel has a large family. He lives with his parents, wife and children. He has a house in Delhi. Mr and Mrs Patel have two children. They have a pet fish which they love very much. They have a lovely time talking to it. The grandparents also have a great time with the children.

- C. Look at this picture to know what these children have.
Complete the sentences using has and have correctly.

1. Tanu has a blue cap.
2. Gaurav and Tanu have an umbrella.
3. Manu has a dog.
4. Manu has a raincoat.

PLAY

Critical Thinking

Problem Solving and Decision Making

Scientific
Temper

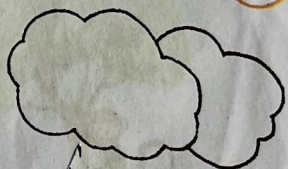

Read these riddles and match them with the answers. Colour the pictures.

1. I have a face. I have two hands. I do not have arms or legs. Clock

2. It has four legs, but it cannot walk. Chair

3. We do not have wings, but we fly. We do not have eyes, but we cry. clouds

4. We are like soft furry balls. We have short tails. We love to eat carrots. rabbits

Now, create similar riddles and play a guessing game.