Chapter No 6 Tine and the Faraway Mountain

Q1 Answer the following questions:

i. Where did Tine Mena live as a child, and what did she love about that place?

Ans Tine lived in Echali, in the Mishmi hills of Arunachal Pradesh. She loved the peaceful mountains and the “whooshoo” sound that came from them.

ii. What made Tine feel connected to the mountains?

Ans The wondrous call from the mountains made her feel a deep connection. She heard it while playing and felt it was calling only to her.

iii. How did Tine feel after moving to Roing?

Tine felt her world turned upside down. She missed her mountains and the magical “whooshoo” sound.

iv. What did Tine do after finishing her schooling?

After school, she applied to be a porter for the army expeditions in the mountains.

v. What does the story teach us about Tine's personality?

Ans The story shows that Tine was brave, determined, and deeply connected to nature. She never gave up on her dream to return to the mountains

vi. Why did Tine's family move to Roing, and how did she feel about it?
Ans Tine's family moved to Roing to be closer to a school. She was unhappy with the move because she missed the peaceful mountains. The city life made her feel sad and disconnected.

vii. How does the author describe Tine's connection with nature?
Ans The author shows Tine loved nature deeply through her joy in climbing trees and running in the jungle. She felt the mountains spoke to her through sounds. Her love for nature never faded, even after moving to the town.

viii. How did Tine spend her time in the Mishmi hills?
Ans When Tine lived in the Mishmi hills, she used to climb trees, run through the jungle and spend long days lying under the sun.
