

Date: _____

Class: V

Div: _____

Roll No: _____ Sub: English

Name: _____

Worksheet: English Literature

Poem 1 How Many Greens?

Q1. Choose the correct option and answer the following questions:

i. What does the speaker talk about in this poem?

- (a) Light green
- (b) the darker green
- (c) The darkest green

(d) All of these

ii. Where is the speaker in the poem?

- (a) at the theater
- (b) in the river

(c) in the park

(d) at the auditorium

iii. Where does the speaker want the light green colour?

- (a) on the desk of her writing table
- (b) in the studio of her house
- (c) on the cover page of her book

(d) on the walls of her house

iv. What is darker green in colour?

- (a) Majestic tree
- (b) little grass

(c) older plants

(d) smaller plants

v. What do the majestic trees do?

(a) They protect the earth

- (b) They play with the speaker
- (c) They provide fruits to the speaker
- (d) They remind the speaker's parents

Q2. Answer the following very short answer type questions:

i. What does the speaker see in the park ?

Ans. The speaker sees different kinds of green colour in the park.

ii. Which kind of trees does the speaker want as friends?

Ans. The speaker wants the older plants as friends.

iii. Why does the speaker want the darker green as friends?

Ans. The speaker wants the darker green as friends because they can tell numerous stories of old memories.

iv. Which trees are the majestic and strong in the poem?

Ans. The darkest trees are the majestic and strong in the poem.

v. Why does the speaker want the majestic and strong trees as her guardian?

Ans. The speaker wants the majestic and strong trees as her guardian because they help her in number of ways.

Q3. Read the lines answer the questions given below it:

“ They hold up the sky and protect the earth

You see, they are the oldest of them all.

They hold the wind in their boughs

Offer homes to all kinds of birds.”

i. What are the three things that the oldest trees do ?

Ans. The oldest trees can hold the wind in their boughs, offer homes to all the birds and call the rains.

ii. Why are they able to do these unlike the smaller plants?

Ans. Because they are taller and stronger than the smaller plants.

iii. What does the speaker mean when they say that the oldest trees ‘hold up the sky’?

Ans. The speaker means that the branches of the oldest trees look so strong that they are supporting the sky above.