Chapter No 1 Unke Munke Timpetoo

i. How did Rohan know that he would be getting a pair of shoes and a pullover? Did the thought of getting it make him happy?

Ans Rohan knew that he would be getting a pair of shoes and a pullover because that is what he got usually for his birthday. He was not happy at the idea of getting these gifts as it was a routine.

---

ii. What was Mrs Groover's reply to Rohan's question of believing Unke Munke Timpetoo?

Ans Mrs Groover replied that she believed in it because her wish of having someone over for tea had just come true.

iii. Read the entire text again. Say how we know that Rohan wanted the table tennis set very badly.

Ans Initially though Rohan refused to believe in Unke Munke Timpetoo, he kept thinking about it. Finally on the day before his birthday, he asked Muk to accompany him to Mrs Groover's garden to wish for the table tennis set. Also he was delighted when he got the table tennis set.

iv. Suddenly, a ferocious bark tore the stillness of the night!

Why did the dog bark?

Ans Dogs have very sharp ears and it must have barked, hearing Rohan running in Mrs Groover's garden.

v. What happened after the dog bark?

Ans After the dog bark, frightened Muk climbed up the tree and Rohan went up to Mrs Groover to explain the incident. Mrs Groover heard him out patiently and asked him to complete the remaining rounds if he did believe in Unke Munke, Timpetoo. Rohan completed the remaining six rounds and left.

vi. Next day, the great moment came. I opened my gifts-rejoiced over my new pair of shoes and the hand-knitted pullover.

Why does the speaker say it was 'the great moment'?

The speaker says it was 'the great moment ' because he was waiting eagerly to open his birthday gift for somewhere, in his heart of hearts, he did think that maybe his wish for a table tennis set would come true.

---

vii. Do you think the speaker really 'rejoiced' at this point? Why?

The speaker tried to rejoice so that his mother would be pleased to see him happy with his birthday gifts.

viii. Who do you think gave Rohan the table tennis set? Why do you think so?

Mrs Groover gave Rohan the table tennis set because she saw how badly Rohan wanted it and also wanted to reward him for being truthful.
