Festival Of Kite Flying (Makar Sankranti)

The kite flying festival is celebrated on 14th January every year.

It is also known as Makar Sankranti.

On this day, people fly colourful kites in the sky.

Children love using firki and manja to fly their kites high.

The whole sky looks bright and beautiful with many kites.

Families gather on rooftops and enjoy the festival together.

Special food like til laddoo, chikki, and khichdi is prepared.

People try to cut each other's kites in friendly competition.

It is a festival of fun, joy, and togetherness.

Kite flying makes everyone happy and excited.

Save Animals

Animals are our friends.
They live in forests, water and sky.
Animals give us milk, eggs and meat.
Some animals give us wool and help in work.
Many animals are in danger now.
Cutting trees and polluting water hurts them.
Hunting and catching animals is wrong.
We should not keep wild animals at home.
Zoos should take good care of animals.
Planting trees gives animals a home.
We should feed stray animals and birds.
Every animal has the right to live.
Saving animals keeps nature safe.
Animals make the world beautiful.
Let us all love and protect animals.
