Poem-4 My Brother's Wheelchair

Q1. Answer the following questions:

i. Who is on the wheelchair and how do people react when they see the children?

Ans: The speaker's brother is on the wheelchair. People smile at them and say they make a fun and crazy pair because they look so happy together.

Ans: _____

ii. How does the brother decorate his wheelchair?

Ans: He paints the wheels in bright colours like blue, yellow, and maroon. Sometimes he even ties balloons to it just for fun.

Ans: _____

iii. Why does the speaker say her brother is smart?

Ans: She says he is smart because he has plenty of ideas and helps her cross puddles when it rains. He always thinks of fun and creative things to do.

Ans: _____

iv. What does the brother do when they go to the park?

Ans: In the park, he rides his wheelchair and uses a horn so that people can move aside. This helps them play safely in the evenings.

Ans: _____

v. What special wheels does he use when they go hiking?

Ans: When they go hiking with baba and aai, he uses special wheels that are like mountain-bike wheels. These help him move easily on rough ground.

Ans:

vi. What do the speaker's friends wish for their own house?

Ans: The friends want their house to have a ramp. They feel it will make moving up and down easier, just like the speaker's brother does.
