

VASISHTHA GENESIS SCHOOL, BARDOLI

(Academic Session: 2025-26)

Date: _____ Class: 6th Div: _____ Roll No: _____ Sub: English
Name: _____ Worksheet: Reference Material(WS-3)

Answer the following very short answer type questions :-

Chapter 7 - Saving the Tiger

i. Where did the narrator see his first tiger?

Ans. The narrator saw his first tiger In the Kanha Tiger Reserve in Madhya Pradesh.

ii. What was special about the small elephant and its teenage mahout ?

Ans. Both were under training to track tigers in the wild.

iii. How has the narrator been able to see many tigers in the wild since his first encounter?

Ans. As a professional wild- life film- maker, the writer had many opportunities to spot tigers in the wild.

iv. Why are tigers considered to be endangered wild animals in India?

Ans. Though our forests can hold some 7000 tigers , we have about 3000 of them. So tigers are considered to be endangered wild animals in India.

v. Why has the writer mentioned Dr Ullas Karanth, a leading tiger expert?

Ans. The writer has mentioned Dr Ullas Karanth, a leading tiger expert to show that his information about our country being able to support 7000 tigers is from a reliable source.

vi. What does the writer have to say about the effectiveness of tiger products as medicine?

Ans .He says that the medicinal properties of tiger products have not been proved but they have been used because of superstitious belief.

vii. Why is the ultimate danger to tigers?

Ans.It is because of uncontrolled poaching of both tigers as well as their food, tigers will soon be extinct.

Poem 4 - After the Storm

i. What does the poem describe?

Ans. The poem describes a morning after a stormy night.

ii. How was the next day in the poem?

Ans. The next day the sun rose as usual bringing a bright new day.

iii. What are the sounds expressive of joy?

Ans. Birds song from the cooing stock-dove, chattering magpie and the calling of jays and the sound of flowing water

iv. What are the happy sights of the new day?

Ans. The sky is clear as if it has come out to welcome the morning.

v. Why does the poet use personification as a stylistic device?

Ans. He imagines the creatures as enjoying the change in the weather as humans would do.

Chapter 8 - Mr Young's Car

i. Who has given car to whom in this chapter?

Ans. Mr Young has given car to the speaker's grandfather.

ii. Why did Mr Young give car to his friend?

Ans. Mr Young gave car to his friend as he went to England, his home town .

iii. Who was crazy about cars and where did he repair Mr Young's car?

Ans. Speaker's uncle was crazy about cars and he got the car repaired at ' Bhabani Engineering Woks'.

iv. Where did the car crash , while riding?

Ans. The car crashed into a Mango tree in an orchard.

v. What was the problem with the car?

Ans. The car was able to run but it has no brake.

vi. Who bought the engine of the car?

Ans. Ramswaroop Tiwari, the owner of the local flour mill bought the engine of the car.

vii. What did the grandpa mean when he wrote that car is being used in the true services of the people?

Ans. The grandpa meant that the different parts of the car continued to serve people of his locality.