The Kite Chase

- On a sunny afternoon, Shyam happily flew his kite in the open field. His father and uncle were repairing their tractor at the side of the road. But suddenly, the string snapped, and the kite soared away. Shyam ran after it, determined to catch it.
- His family saw him running and quickly joined in the chase. They followed him as he dashed through the grass, his eyes fixed on the kite.
- Just as Shyam reached a small pond, he leaped into the air and grabbed the string. But his jump sent a splash of water flying, soaking his family as they arrived behind him.
- Drenched but laughing, they all gathered around Shyam, who proudly held up the kite.
