

LITERATURE

⇒ CH 14 :- Where does the Wind live ?

⇒ Dictation Words :-

- | | |
|-----------------|--------------------|
| 1) Kingdom | 15) magnificent |
| 2) Palace | 16) throne |
| 3) glittered | 17) precious |
| 4) waited | 18) mouth-watering |
| 5) delicacies | 19) irritably |
| 6) indulgently | 20) fluttering |
| 7) fascinated | 21) swayed |
| 8) twisting | 22) courtiers |
| 9) entangled | 23) dismayed |
| 10) immediately | 24) furiously |
| 11) pacing | 25) triumphantly |
| 12) indeed | 26) loss |
| 13) split | 27) stubbornly |
| 14) instruments | 28) screamed |

⇒ Word Meanings :-

- 1) heir to the throne - The person who will be the next ruler of the land
- 2) waited upon him - ready to obey his orders
- 3) mouth-watering delicacies - Very tasty food items

4) indulgently - in a way that allows someone to do what they want

5) fluttering - making quick movements in all directions

6) Sawyed - moved from side to side

7) entangled - Caught in something from which it is difficult to remove

8) Dismayed - Very unhappy

9) furiously - Very angrily

10) Pacing up and down - walking quickly from one side to another, due to worry

11) triumphantly - in a way as if you have won something

12) indeed - really

13) timidly - shyly

14) toss - throw

15) in a split second - immediately

16) stubbornly - doing what you want without listening others

17) at a loss for words - unable to think of anything to say

18) open-mouthed - so surprised that his mouth remained open

19) bear it no more - unable to tolerate or remain silent any longer

⇒ Make Sentences :-

1) fluttering - The town was decorated with fluttering banners.

2) dismayed - I was dismayed to find that the clothes did not fit.

3) furiously - The team is paddling furiously to win the boat race.

4) indeed - He has indeed been dropped from the team.

⇒ Blanks :-

1) In the story, Hamid was ten years old.

2) Hamid's clothes were made of ^{the} softest silks.

3) Hamid saw a pink kite with yellow tail.

4) Pink kite belonged to a poor boy named Rashid.

5) The kite got entangled in a tall Coconut tree.

6) Prince Hamid ordered the courtiers to find out the address of wind.

7) Rashid called Hamid a stupid, spoilt and mean boy.

8) Hamid said that only Rashid dared to tell him the truth.

⇒ Answer these questions :-

1) Who is a 'courtier' ?

→ A courtier is a person who attends the royal court to advice and help the king or queen.

2) Why did the kite fear ?

→ The kite tore because they tried to fly it in a very stormy and violent wind.

3) What could Rashid not bear any more ?

→ Rashid could not bear so many kites being destroyed needlessly in the stormy wind, only because of Prince Hamid's stubbornness.

4) Why did Hamid call Rashid 'a real friend' ?

→ Hamid called Rashid a true friend, because only he dared to tell Hamid the truth about his stubbornness, and helped him to understand where he was going wrong.

5) Why was Hamid pacing up and down on that day?

→ Prince Hamid needed some wind to fly his kite, but there was no wind for few days. On that day, there was finally wind and it was blowing heavily, so Prince Hamid was waiting impatiently for Rashid to come so that he could finally fly the kite with his help. This is why he was pacing up and down.

6) Make a list of at least five man-made objects that can fly other than kite.

→ Those are: a plane, a helicopter, a frisbee, a balloon and a drone.