

Q-3) Write T for true and F for the false statements.

- 1) We should walk short distances as this can help prevent pollution. _____
- 2) Noise pollution can cause asthma and cancer. _____
- 3) Bathing of animals in water increases water pollution. _____
- 4) Vehicles and loudspeakers are sources of land pollution. _____

Q-4) Answer in One Word

- 1) Wearing away of topsoil _____
- 2) Waste that cannot rot _____
- 3) Natural home of plants and animals: _____
- 4) Reusing waste material is called: _____
- 5) Resource that never ends:- _____

Q-5) Give two examples

- 1) Diseases caused by air pollution -----,-----
- 2) Sources of noise pollution -----,-----
- 3) Diseases caused by water pollution -----,-----

Q-6) Read the following two statements and choose the correct option.

1. Statement 1-We should always throw garbage in dustbin.

Statement 2-Dumping of solid waste causes land pollution.

- a.Both statement1 and 2 are correct b.Statement1 is incorrect but statement 2 is correct
- c.Both statement 1 and 2 are incorrect d. Statement 1 is correct but 2 is incorrect

2. Statement 1-Water pollution can harm aquatic life.

Statement 2 Air pollution is good for health.

- a.Both statement1 and 2 are correct b.Statement1 is incorrect but statement 2 is correct
- c.Both statement 1 and 2 are incorrect d. Statement 1 is correct but 2 is incorrect

Q-7) Think and answer

1. If a factory is located near a river ,how would it effect the health of people living close by.

2.How do you think school can help reduce pollution in its local area.

3 The environment does not need humans, but humans need the environment.

Q-8) Picture-study

A) 1) What he is doing? _____ 2) Do you think he is doing the right thing? _____
B)1. Interpret what is happening in the picture and one way in which this will affect the air and soil of the place. _____ 2. Recommended what should be done instead, if more clear land is needed for housing. _____ _____

Q.9) Read the passage carefully and answer these questions

Human beings depend on the environment for air, water, food, and shelter. Plants give us oxygen and food, while animals help us in many ways. Human activities like cutting trees and throwing waste in water cause pollution and harm nature. We should protect the environment by planting trees and keeping our surroundings clean.

MCQs

1. Humans depend on the environment for:

- a) Toys and games
- b) Air, water, food, and shelter
- c) Roads and buildings
- d) Machines

2. What causes harm to nature?

- a) Planting trees
- b) Keeping surroundings clean
- c) Cutting trees
- d) Saving water

3. How can we protect the environment?

- a) By throwing waste in rivers
- b) By planting trees
- c) By cutting forests
- d) By burning plastic