Critical Thinking, Creative Thinking

Stand in front of a mirror with your friend. What do you see in it?

In the mirror, on the wall,
There's a face I always see;
Round and pink, and rather small,
Looking back again at me.

It is very rude to stare,
But she never thinks of that,
For her eyes are always there;
What can she be looking at?

—Elizabeth Fleming

- round shaped like a circle
- rather kind of
- rude to behave in a bad manner
- stare to look at something for a
