

Literature

Ch-2 Hottest Food Ever

★ Dictation words :

1. spicy
2. boiling
3. stinging
4. broiling
5. chomping
6. panting
7. whining
8. chilli
9. feel
10. perspire
11. burning
12. sizzling
13. scorching
14. aflame
15. guzzling
16. moaning
17. fault
18. silly
19. foying
20. tastebuds

★ Word Meanings:

1. sizzling - very hot
2. stinging - a sharp pain like an insect bite
3. scorching - very hot
4. broiling - very hot
5. perspire - to sweat due to heat
6. guzzling - drinking very fast, in huge amount
7. chomping - biting and chewing noisily
8. panting - breathing loudly and quickly
9. moaning - making continuous low sounds due to pain
10. whining - making sad, high pitched sound, like a dog

★ Make Sentences:

1. panting - He was panting when he reached the top.
2. sizzling - I like to eat sizzling pasta.

3. Chomping - They were chomping burgers at the picnic.

★ Fill in the blanks:

1. Bhut Jolokia from Assam is the hottest Indian food.
2. The pepper is making my tastebuds perspire.
3. In some countries, varieties of chillies are also called chilli peppers.
4. Wilbur Scoville developed the first scientific test to measure spiciness.

★ Answer the following questions:

Q.1 What is the hottest food that you have ever eaten?

Ans. I have never eaten hottest food or I have eaten hottest pizza, noodles, manchurian etc.

Q.2 Why do you think the narrator in the poem thought it was cold when they heard the word 'chilly'?

Ans. The word 'chilly' sounds just like 'chilli' which means cold. This is why the narrator got confused.

Q.3. In the poem, the narrator wants to use water and ice to help against the heat of the chilli. Can you suggest five other things that can help to 'cut' through the spice?

Ans. The other things that help to cut through the spice are - milk, cream, yogurt, sweets, buttermilk and chocolate.

Q.4 Which chilli is hotter than the Bhut Jolokia?

Ans. The California Reaper is the hotter than the Bhut Jolokia.

Workbook

Ch-2 Hottest Food Ever