

8

Adjectives: My, Our, Your, His, Her, Its, Their

THINK

Critical Thinking

Look at the pictures.

my book

our cycle

your shirt

his mother

her dog

its house

their family

What do the words in red tell you?

LEARN

The adjectives my, our, your, his, her, its and their show what a person or animal has.

PRACTISE

A. Circle the adjectives that show belonging and underline the nouns they describe.

1. My father is going on a tour.

2. Our aunt is getting married in June.
3. Can you give me her phone number?
4. Is this your school bag?
5. The dog happily looked at its master.
6. Their house is neat and clean.
7. We have met his parents before.

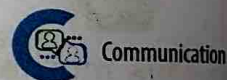

B. Tick (✓) the correct adjectives that show belonging.

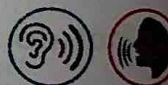

1. I/My cousin is coming to visit us.
2. Have you seen her/she papers?
3. How is your/you health?
4. He/His hand hurts.
5. Their/They tickets were cancelled.
6. The baby is hugging it/its mother.
7. The mangoes in our/we orchard are very tasty.

PLAY

Tell the class about yourself in ten sentences. Make sure each sentence has at least one adjective that shows belonging. You can start like this:

My name is Shaina. My father is a teacher.

Your classmates can ask you questions with similar adjectives, like:

What is your favourite colour, Shaina?

