One Sunday morning, Riya and her brother Aarav decided to explore a nearby forest with their parents. The weather was pleasant, and the birds were singing sweetly. As they walked along a narrow path, they noticed many beautiful flowers and tall green trees. Soon, they found a small stream with clear water. Tiny fishes were swimming quickly through the water. Aarav felt happy as he watched the fish. Their father told them to be careful while crossing the stream because the rocks were slippery.

After some time, they reached a quiet place where they sat down to eat their lunch. They felt tired after the long walk but were excited about the wonderful adventure. Before returning home, they promised to protect nature and keep the forest clean.
