Reading Skill (practice Passage)

Q1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below by choosing correct option

One rainy afternoon, Maya was home alone, curled up on the couch with a book when the doorbell rang. Startled, she peeked through the window and saw a small brown package on the front porch. No delivery truck was in sight, and the package had no label or sender information.

Curious but cautious, Maya brought the package inside. It was light but made a soft clinking sound when she moved it. She opened the lid slowly and discovered a beautiful glass orb resting on a velvet cloth.

Attached to it was a small note that read:

"To the one who sees beyond,

This gift will guide you to what's gone."

Maya's heart raced. She had always been fascinated by mysteries, and this one felt personal. She held the orb up to the light, and for a moment, it shimmered with colors she had never seen before. Suddenly, the room grew quiet, almost expectant.

Though she didn't understand it yet, Maya knew the orb was no ordinary object. It was the beginning of an adventure—one that would test her courage, curiosity, and the ability to believe in the impossible.
