Dear Diary,

I am feeling utterly disheartened today. On my way home from school, I witnessed a group of people cutting down trees. I asked them about their actions, and they explained that they were instructed to do so to make way for a new road construction. I felt a deep sense of annoyance and I thought about how we're losing greenery due to the felling of trees. It's disheartening to witness how we are contributing to the destruction of our environment. I am planning to plant more trees and will encourage my friends to do the same. I hope that people will come to realize the immense value of trees in maintaining a sustainable environment.

Dear Diary,

Today, my class went on a picnic to Green Valley. My mother woke me up early, and I eagerly dressed in my school uniform. She packed a bag with delicious snacks and sandwiches. We drove to school, and I joined my classmates on the ready bus. We left at 7:00 am, enjoying songs and treats on the way.

By 10:00 am, we arrived at the beautiful valley, surrounded by hills. We played games and had a great time, with our teachers joining us. We had lunch by a lake, watching birds and ducks. At 4:00 pm, our teacher signalled us to return to the bus. Reluctantly, we started our journey back at 4:30 pm and reached home at 7:30 pm. I had a wonderful time on the picnic.

iii) Write a dairy entry about your trip to a soft toys factory, which you went along with your class.

17 November 20XX, Thursday

10:30 p.m.

Dear Diary,

Today was a lovely day. My class went on an educational trip to visit a soft toy factory. My friends and I were very excited. We reached school on time and boarded the bus. The bus ride was enjoyable, with songs and a game of 'Antakshari' keeping us entertained.

The factory was located on the outskirts of the city, so it took us forty-five minutes to get there. The place resembled a fairyland with all kinds of toys. We toured all the sections and observed the entire process of making stuffed toys. I purchased a large teddy bear for my little sister, and everyone else bought some toys too. At 10:00 a.m., we had our lunch. Then, it was time to board the bus, and we returned to school at 3:00 p.m., carrying happy memories.

Dear Diary,

Today in school, we had a surprise test in Maths. It was unexpected, and I was a little nervous at first, but I think I did my best. I had already reviewed my Math notes last night, so I felt somewhat prepared. The questions were challenging, but I tried to stay focused and solve them to the best of my ability. I hope I did well. I'll find out the results soon.
