
Date: _____ Class: 4 Div: _____ Roll No: _____ Sub : English
Name: _____ Worksheet 1 for P. T 2

Chapter 3 The Magic Wardrobe

Q 1 Answer the following questions.

Q1. Why did Lucy stay behind in the empty room?

Ans Lucy was curious about the big wardrobe. She wanted to see what was inside it. So, she stayed behind while the others left.

Q2. Who was Mr. Tumnus, and what role did he play in Lucy's adventure in Narnia?

Ans Mr. Tumnus was a faun who lived in Narnia. He befriended Lucy, invited her for tea, and protectected her by refusing to betray her to the White Witch.

Q3. How does Lucy feel when she first enters Narnia, and what does this tell us about her character?

Ans Lucy feels curious and excited when she enters Narnia for the first time. This shows she is brave, adventurous, and open to explore a new worlds.

Q4 Describe the Professor's house.

Ans The Professor's house was very large. It had many unexpected places, spare bedrooms, and rooms full of books and pictures. It also had a room with a big wardrobe.

Q5 Describe the appearance of Mr. Tumnus.

Ans Mr. Tumnus looked like a man from the waist upwards. He had goat's legs, hooves, and two small horns. He also wore a red scarf and carried an umbrella

Q6 Why did the children decide to explore the house?

Ans The children could not go outside because it was raining heavily. Peter suggested exploring the house instead of reading books all day. Everyone liked his idea. So they decided to explore the house.

Chapter No 4 The Trumpet of the Swans

Q1. Who was Sam Beaver?

Ans Sam Beaver was an eleven-year-old boy. He loved exploring nature and forests. He was curious about birds and animals.

Q2. Why was Sam filled with wonder?

Sam knew that trumpeter swans were very rare. He was excited to see them laying eggs. It was a special and unforgettable sight for him.

Q3. Why was the cob angry?

The cob was angry because he saw a boy in the middle of the forest. He wondered how the boy had reached there. He was afraid that the boy might harm them.

Q4. What did the swans realise about Sam?

The swans realised that Sam was kind and brave. He had saved them from the fox. They understood that he was their friend.

Q5. Why was Sam called a true friend of the swans?

Sam cared about the swans and protected them from danger. He scared the fox away by throwing a stick. His brave act saved the swan's life

Q6. What lesson do you learn from this story?

We should not judge others without knowing them. Kind and brave people always help those in need. We should love and protect wildlife. Animals should never be disturbed in their natural homes

Poem 2 Summer Sun

Q1. Answer the following questions:

Q1. Why the sun is called "great" in the poem?

Ans The sun is called great because it lights up the whole world. It shines brightly all day. It gives warmth and energy to everyone.

Q2. What is the main idea of the poem?

Ans The poem describes the beauty and power of the summer sun. It shows how the sun reaches every corner with its light. The poet admires the sun for making the world bright and joyful.

Q3 What does the poet mean by the sun's "golden fingers"?

Ans The "golden fingers" are the sun's bright rays. They gently enter through small cracks. They spread light everywhere.

Q4 What do you learn from this poem?

We learn that the sun is very important for life. It brings light, warmth, and happiness to the world. We should appreciate the beauty of nature.

Q5 Why the sun is called 'the gardener of the World'?

Ans The sun is called 'the gardener of the World' as a gardener takes care of the trees and plants in a garden so that the plants and trees stay healthy and bear fruits and vegetables. Similarly, the sun's warmth and brightness help life to flourish on earth.