Good Manners and Habits

Starter

H.W.

Colour the MAGIC WORD that every well-mannered person should use.

THANK YOU !

Do you know who is a good child?

A good child is the one who has good habits and good manners.

Teachers teach us good habits at school. Our elders teach them at home.

Would you like to be called a well-mannered child?

Good Habits and Manners

- Respect your elders and teachers.
- Wish them when you meet them.
- Say, 'Thank you' when someone gives you something.

Thank you

- Say 'Sorry' when you do something wrong.
- Say 'Please' when you ask somebody for something.
- Say 'May I' to seek permission.
- Compliment others.
- Wake up early in the morning.
- Go to bed early at night.
- At school and at a bus stop, always stand in a queue.
- Apologise for your mistakes.
- Always smile and have a good attitude.
- Do not push others. Obey your elders.
- Do not quarrel. Always speak the truth.
- Never tease anybody. Help the needy.
- Say 'Bless you' after someone sneezes.

Teacher's note:

Make children understand the value of magic words. Tell them to follow good manners. Make them understand that following good manners will help them to earn praises from everyone.
