

9. The Curious Baby Elephant

Playing with Words

A. Match the animals to their babies.

Animals		Babies
1. lion	1 - c	a. calf
2. cow	2 - a	b. lamb
3. horse	3 - d	c. cub
4. hen	4 - e	d. foal
5. sheep	5 - b	e. chick

B. Complete the questions using the words in the box.

Where

When

What

Who

Why

1. Why are you crying?
2. Where did you leave your notebook?
3. What is the green substance in a leaf called?
4. Who is going to the library with you?
5. When will you come back from the holidays?
6. Where will you go after that?
7. Why are you late today?

Mastering the Skills

C. Rewrite these sentences using capital letters and full stops.

1. an elephant lives in the forest

An elephant lives in the forest.

2. the frogs enjoyed swimming in the pond

The frogs enjoyed swimming in the pond.

3. the animals got up early in the morning

The animals got up early in the morning.

4. the sky was filled with clouds

The sky was filled with clouds.

5. the forest was cut down to make buildings

The forest was cut down to make buildings.

6. the zoo was very big and people got tired of moving around

The zoo was very big and people got tired of moving around.

Learning the Language

D. Circle the correct options for these sentences.

1. I am/were late today.
2. The horses is/are in the field.
3. Tennis is/was my favourite sport when I was in school.
4. The beautiful sailboat was/is built in 1985.
5. I are/am playing basketball now.
6. Yesterday was/were the best day of my life!
7. We were/was at the pool yesterday.
8. Mahua and Malati was/were at the party last night.

E. Fill in the blanks with has or have.

1. My friend has bought a new guitar.
2. Ela and Mona have gone to the mall.
3. Sheena has left the door open.
4. I have a red pen.
5. She has a nice bag.
6. Sweepers have cleaned the street.
7. Ram has a pet cat.
8. Rita has already spoken to her mother about it.

Writing

F. Write five lines about your favourite storybook. You may use these points.

what you would want to be--how would you achieve this aim--why do you want to be this--what would you do once you achieve this

1. My favourite storybook is 'The Panchatantra'
2. It has many interesting and funny stories about animals.
3. I love reading these stories because they are entertaining.
4. Each story teaches us a good moral lesson.
5. I enjoy reading this book in my free time.

